FACTS

In correspondence dated 28 October 1996, William P. McCann of Birmingham, Alabama, an 11th generation grandson of the immigrant John Guild and his wife Elizabeth Crooke, provided The Walpole Historical Society with certain data gathered as a result of his visit to the Guild Burial Ground. These included a 1917 photo of the cemetery, a schematic diagram of the cemetery, actual epitaph verbiage as well as descriptions and locations of headstones and the Guild Tomb. These items are available for viewing at the Walpole Historical Society.

LISTING

Although not documented as such, the following listing is based on a “walk through” or inventory that was most likely completed by a member or members of the historical society and Mr. McCann. Because not all dates were captured during the inventory, we have attempted to verify missing dates through vital records and other sources. These are so noted.
